

good night out out on granville

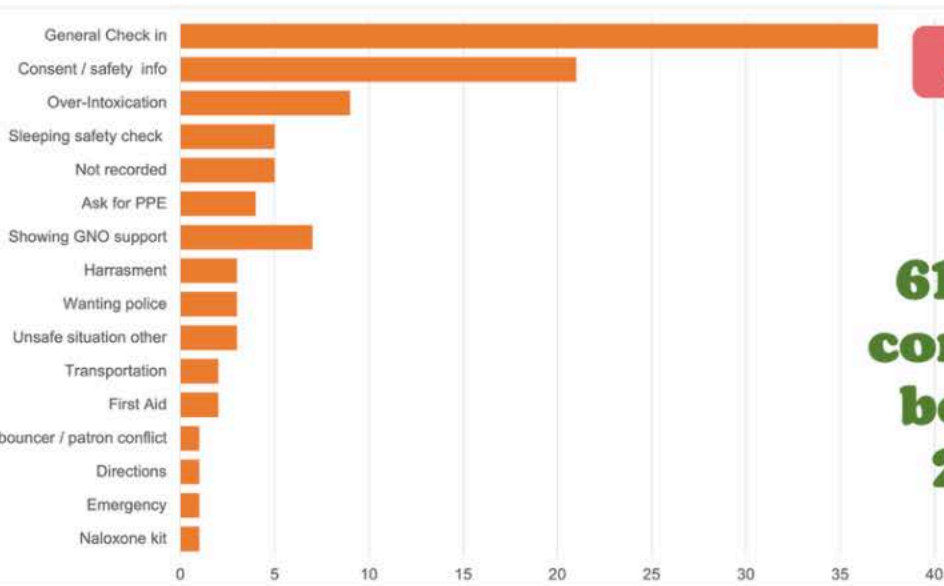

December 2022

NOTE: team not operational Dec 24, 25, 30 or 31.

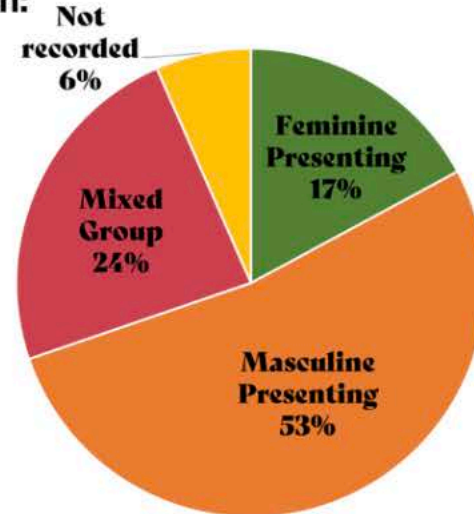

76 contacts supporting 144 people!

Nature of Contact:

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

61% of contacts before 2am

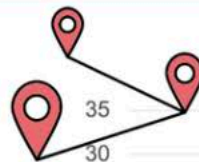

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary. Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that apx 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

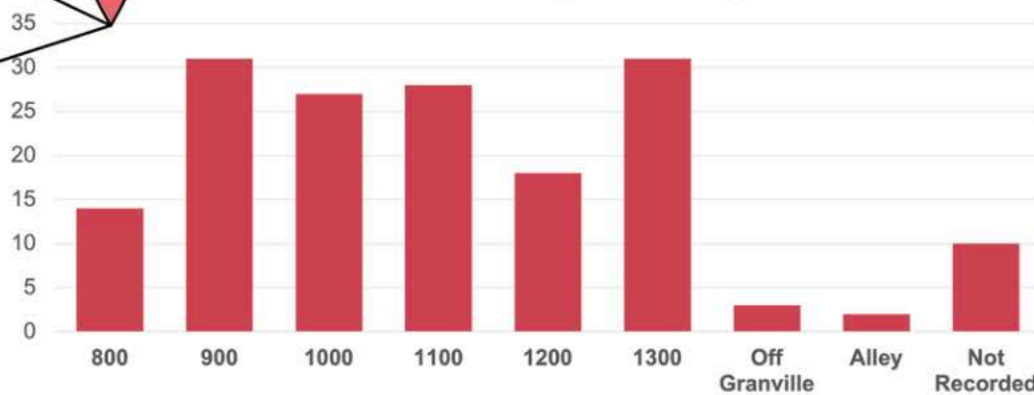

good night out out on granville

October 2022

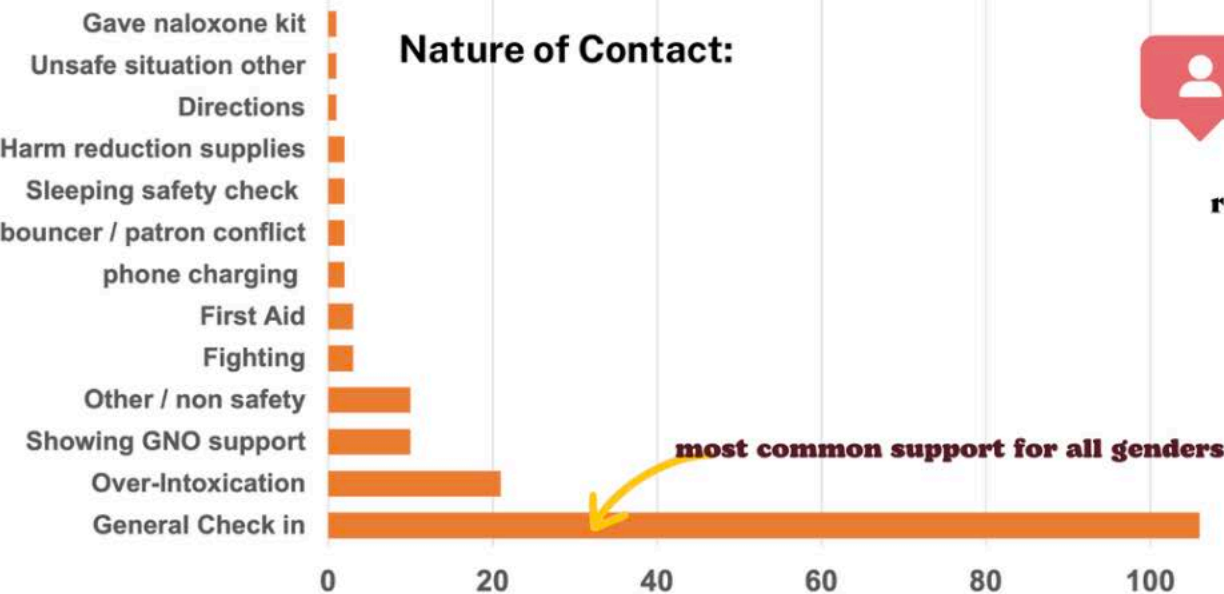

164 contacts supporting 385 people!

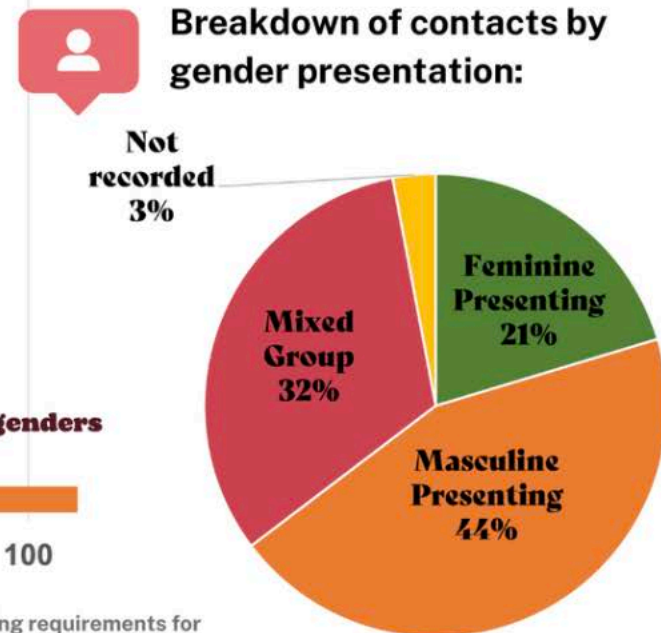

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

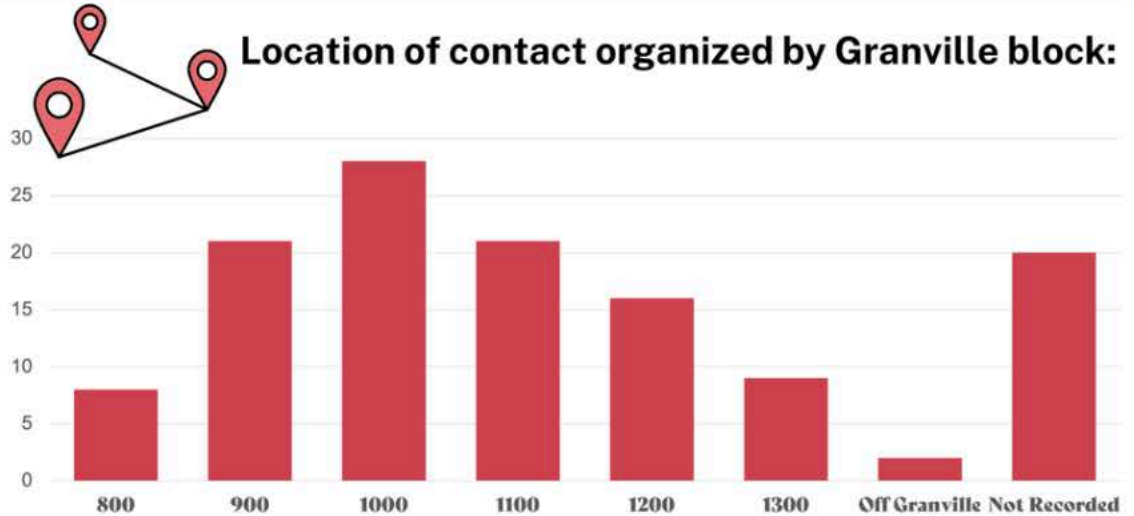

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary. Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that apx 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

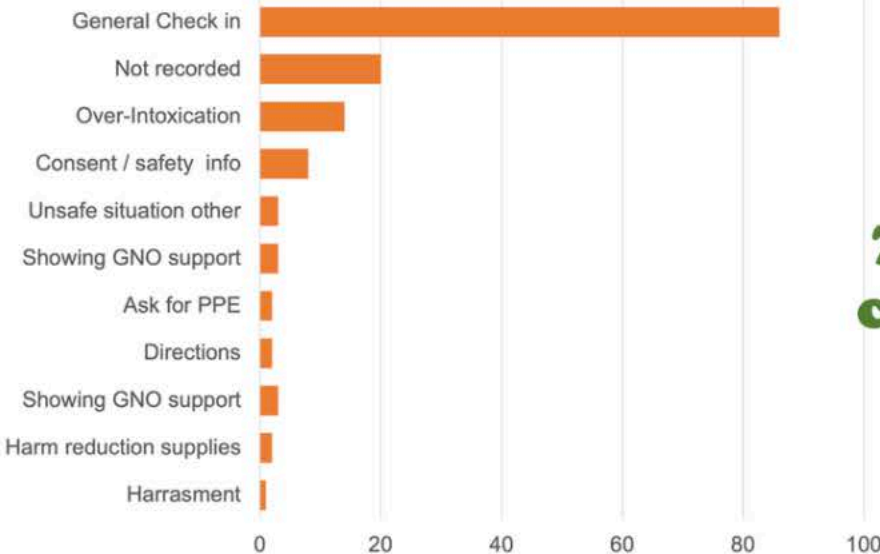

good night out out on granville

November 2022

128 contacts supporting 292 people!

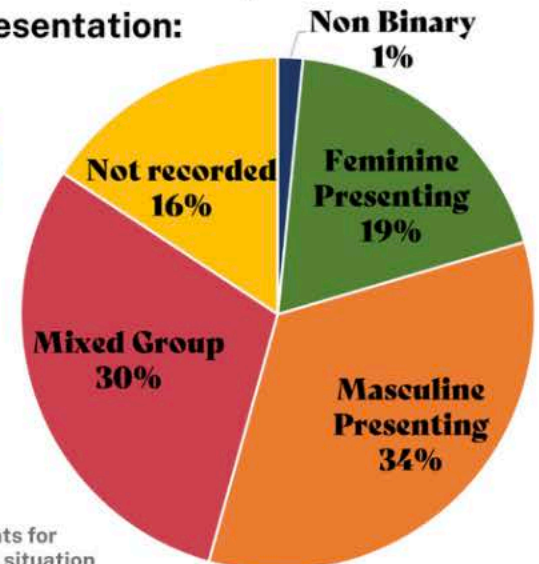

Nature of Contact:

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

78 % of contacts before 2am

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary. Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that apx 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

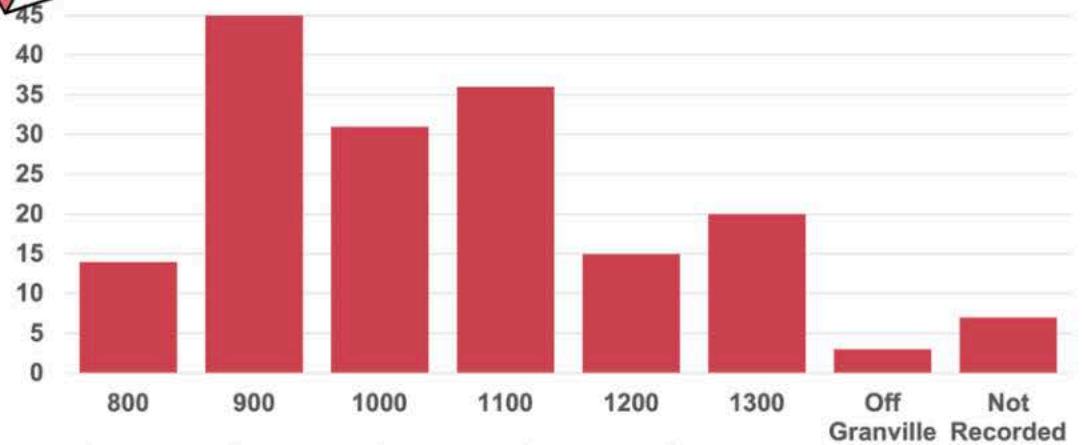

good night out out on granville

September 2022

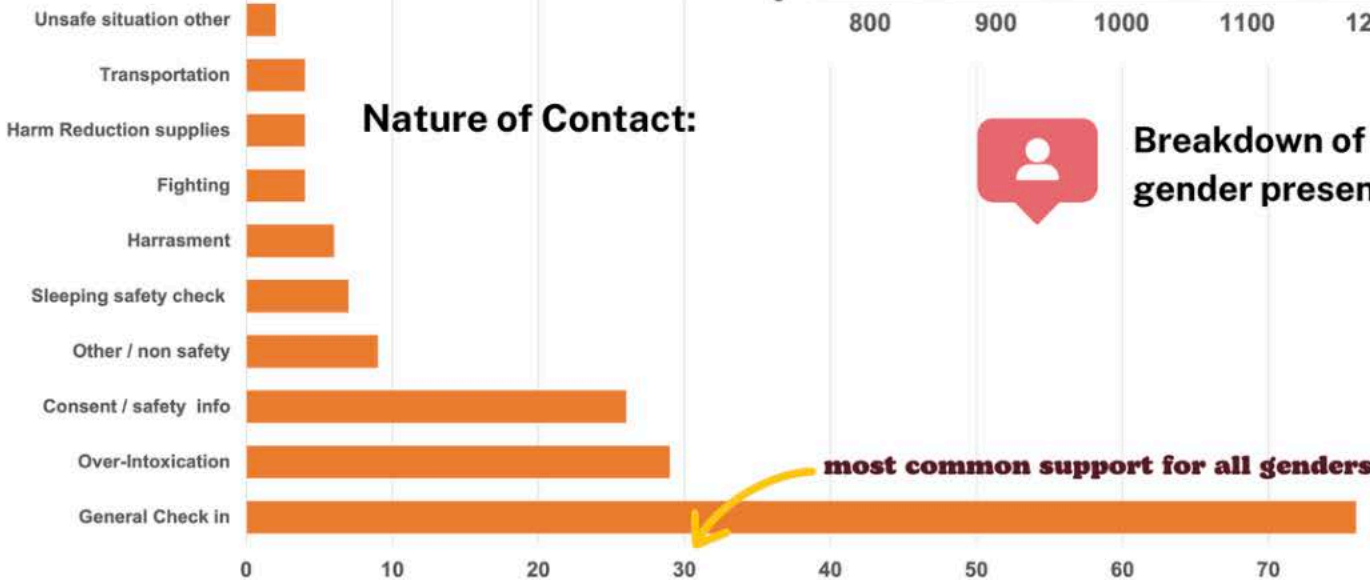

173 contacts supporting 401 people!

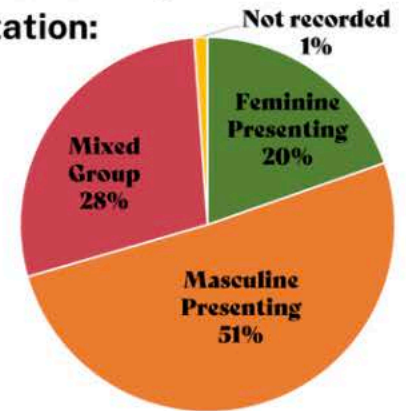

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

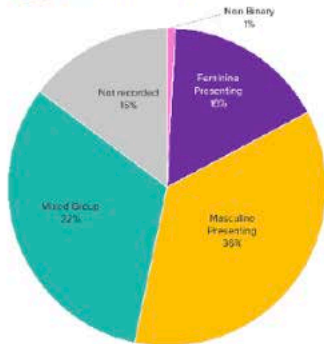

most common support for all genders

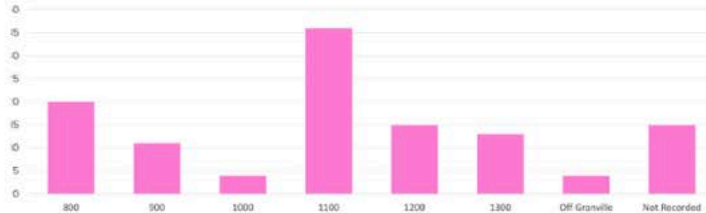

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary. Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that apx 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

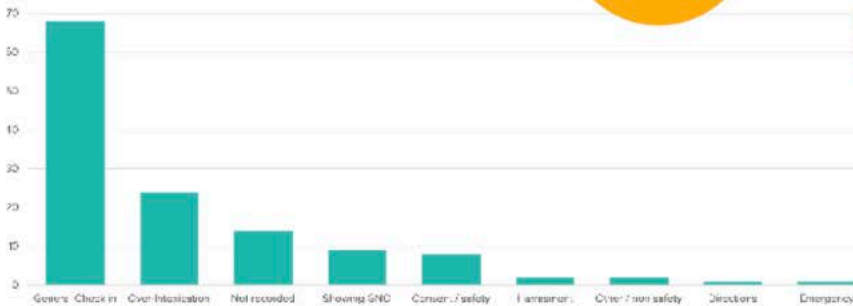

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

120 contacts serving 253 people.

61%

of contacts happened between before 2 am

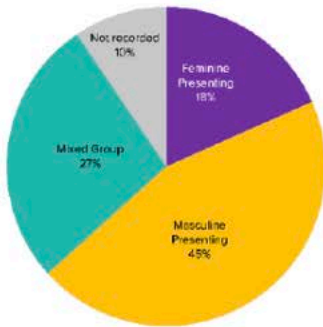

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary.

Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that approximately 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

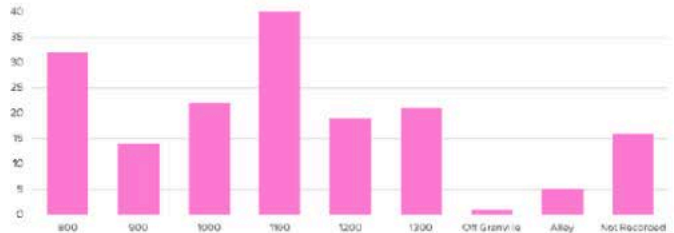

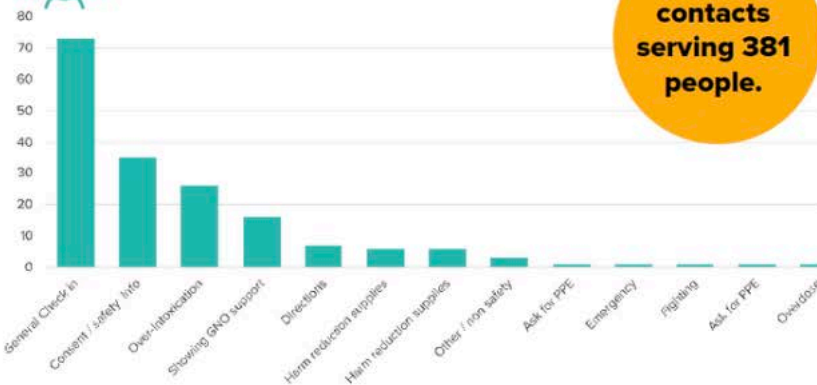

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

170 contacts serving 381 people.

1-2am

was the busiest hour this month!

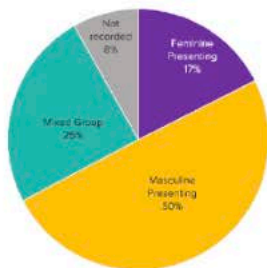

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary.

Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided.

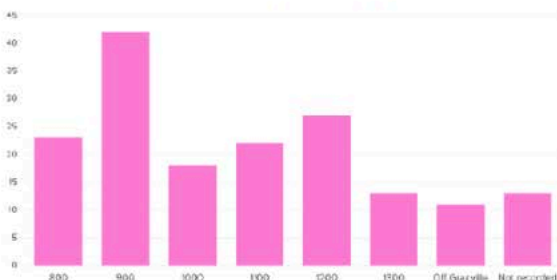

note: team was not operational June 2021, 2020, or 2019, so comparison not available

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

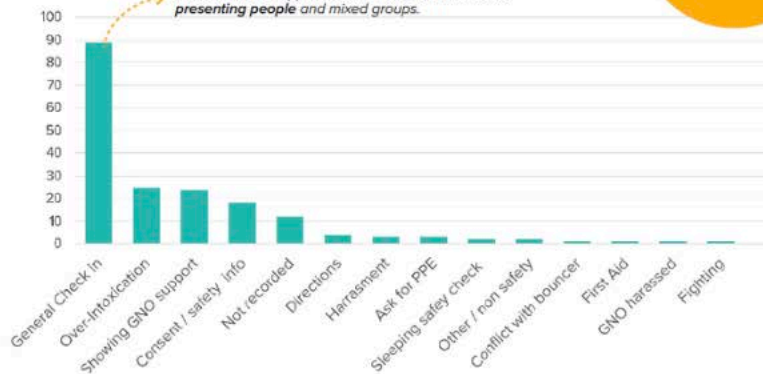

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

Most common support for feminine and masculine presenting people and mixed groups.

171
contacts
serving 359
people.

64%

of contacts happened between before 2 am

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary.

Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that approximately 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

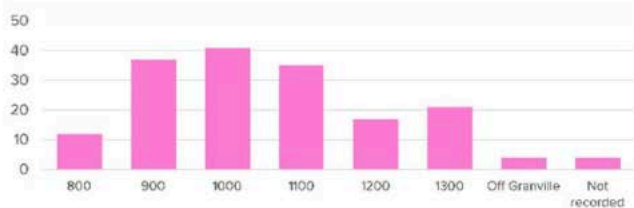

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

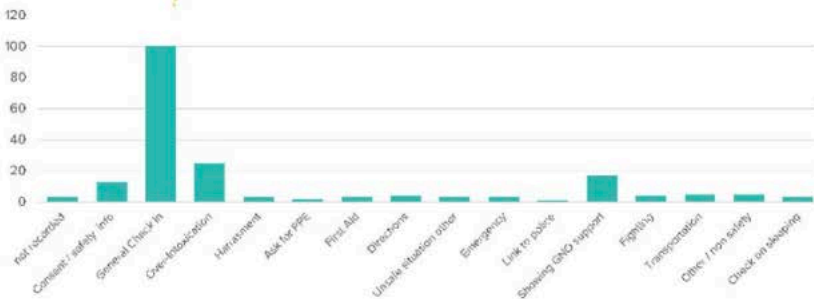

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

Most common support for feminine and masculine presenting people and mixed groups.

177
contacts
serving 393
people.

68%

of contacts happened between before 2 am

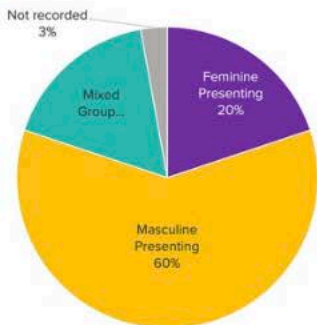

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary.

Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that approximately 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

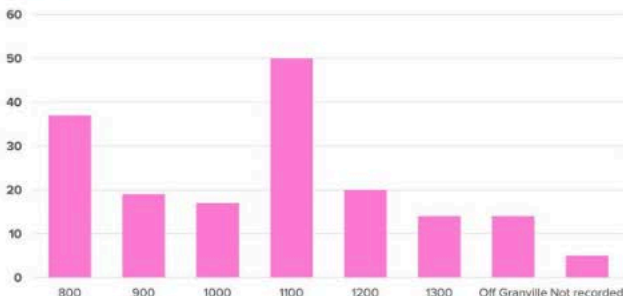

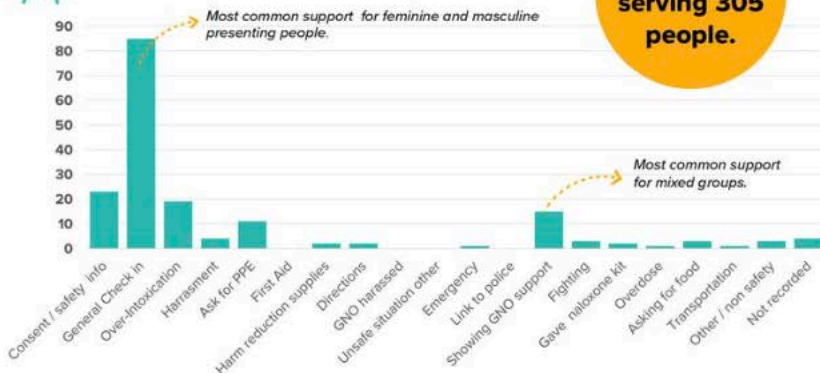

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

175 contacts serving 305 people.

70%

of contacts happened between before 2 am

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary.

Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that approximately 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

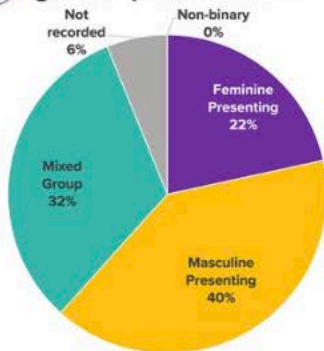

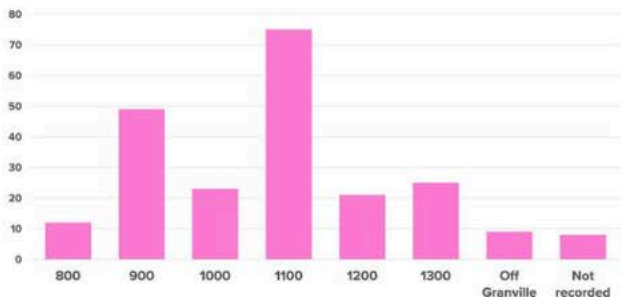

*Team restarted mid-Feb.

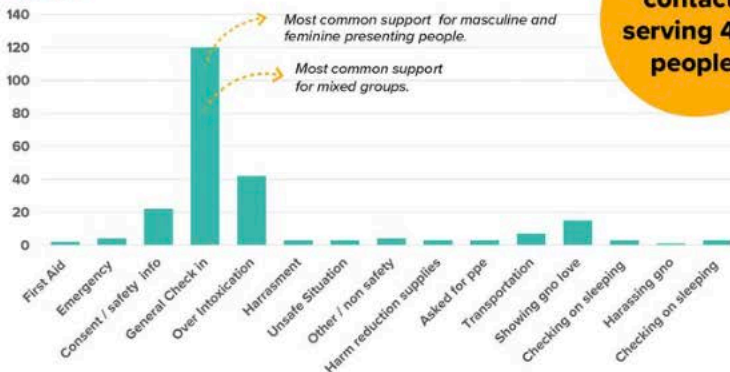

Breakdown of contacts by gender presentation:

Location of contact organized by Granville block:

Nature of Contact:

222 contacts serving 456 people.

41%

of contacts happened between 2 - 330 am

No demographic information is asked of the public, but team members do enter observations as part of reporting requirements for funders. We do realize that some of these rely on traditional assumptions within a problematic gender binary.

Contacts = any situation the team encounters. Mixed groups = more than one person of differing gendering presentations. Nature of contact = support services provided. Contacts might require more than one service. Upon testing, it has been shown that approximately 10-12% of contacts are not recorded during peak times on shift.

