

Red Flags to watch for:

Pressuring others to drink faster, larger quantities, or stronger drinks.

Targeting the most intoxicated person in the space.

Purchasing drinks & feeling entitled to something in return.

Pressuring people to do drugs.

Ordering drinks stronger than asked for.

Trying to get an incapacitated person alone, away from friends, or outside of the space.

Making 'jokes' about getting people drunk in order to have sex with them.

Flirting with people who are in need of support due to overintoxication.

Call in your friends in when they get too intense or entitled with others. Let staff know if anything causes you concern.

GOOD night
OUT